This petition is an over-simplification. It basically eliminates incentives to attain the extra licenseby setting the goal too low for general, and allocates too many priveleges. The current plan of three license classes is excellent, as is element 1 being required for general and extra.